READY, RESPECTFUL, SAFE

Happy New Year! Welcome back! I hope you all had an exciting Christmas and New Year. Again, there are lots of exciting learning experiences planned for this coming term. Please see our long term plans for Year 1-6 here on our website for an overview of learning. Our EYFS class page here has lots of curriculum information for our Reception children. December's newsletter also had overviews for this term.

No Outsiders

Our 'Everyone Welcome' ethos is supported through whole school education around being respectful, kind and empathetic towards others. The No Outsiders approach focuses on the seven protected characteristics outlined in the Equality Act 2010. Where additional support is required to further educate individual children or groups, we tailor interventions to suit.

No Outsiders dovetails with our Personal, Social & Health Education (PSHE) curriculum. Please see the curriculum page, behaviour policy and Anti-Bullying Policies on our website for further information.

PARKING

There has been a marked improvement in parking since my last letter. We are now focussing on only 4 or 5 repeat offenders. More deterrents are being ordered just in case some people are unable to see the bright red and yellow no parking police cones.

Yellow zig-zag lines outside schools, hospitals, or fire, police or ambulance stations indicate the length of road where stopping or waiting is strictly prohibited. The Highway Code states that you should keep these areas clear of stationary vehicles, even if picking up or setting down children. DO NOT PARK ON YELLOW ZIG-ZAG LINES OR DOUBLE YELLOW LINES.
